Consent to the use of data

The client consents to the processing of data in accordance with Art. 5, 6 GDPR by the contractor, including personal data, which serve the purpose of ensuring the fulfilment of the contract by the contractor.

The contractor is entitled to pass on data of the client to insurers for the submission of offers, the creation of documents, the calculation of premiums, and the processing claims, etc. The client consents to the insurers selected by the contractor passing on this data to reinsurers, other insurers and associations. This consent applies irrespective of the conclusion of the contract, including for the examination of other requested contracts.

The client also consents to the contacted insurers keeping general contractual, billing and benefit data in joint databases and forwarding same to the contractor insofar as this serves the contractual purpose.

In so far as the processing of specific personal data pursuant to Art. 9 GDPR is required (for example, health data in the context of the submission of offers for health insurance, disability insurance, life insurance), the client hereby expressly consents to the data processing.

The client has the right to revoke its consent at any time with effect for the future, waiving formal requirements.

The contractor warrants that the data stored will be limited to the necessary extent and that it shall be factually correct. Moreover, adequate security of personal data shall be ensured by the contractor.

The client was issued the privacy policy, which is also available on the contractor's website, upon conclusion of the contract.
